

KLOVE Radio is a source of encouragement and positive news which impacts the Christian community in my town and many towns across the US. I personally support K-LOVE with monthly contributions as a private citizen, and it is a source of inspiration and peace during my day. I urge the FCC not to allow this valuable station to be supplanted by an LPFM station, which may not share my values or those of my family.

Respectfully,
Robert Shroder